I feel that the disclosure requirements for broadcast sources, particularly AI work product, should never be relaxed. The public needs to know the source of information, and the threat of deep fakes and disinformation are tantamount. Do not let profit supersede the public’s ownership and scrutinization of the airwaves. Thank you.